

The end to ordinary background music . . .
Welcome to an extraordinary musical experience

Transparent Introduces Whole House MusicLink Interconnect

- Transparent's network technology controls noise and impedance
- Transforms coaxial cable into a conduit for music rather than ultra high frequency signals
- Creates sound quality that encourages an emotional connection with music never thought possible in a distributed music system
- Simple assembly makes installations easy, fast, efficient
- Slim, space-saving design creates beautiful cabling layouts in your system rack
- See your Transparent Dealer for details.
